Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Roy and Rose Schmeichel exchanged their wedding vows, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days on November 4, 1956, at Union Presbyterian Church near Canova, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Roy and Rose gave life and love to two daughters, Lori and Wendi, who in turn blessed them with two grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Roy has enjoyed his careers with Wonder Bread as a salesman and at Westward Ho Country Club as a groundskeeper. Rose has worked in the dental profession as an assistant for almost 50 years; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Roy and Rose have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, Roy and Rose will observe their 50th wedding anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as their friends and relatives gather to honor them with an open house at Peace Lutheran Church in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, on November 4, 2006, to celebrate their lives and the camaraderie of the day; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable occasions in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 4, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness.

ROY AND ROSE SCHMEICHEL DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
